

Types of housing

Use this checklist to determine what types of housing situations could work for you. Check all that could be possible for you and then rank them in order of preference.

| Types of housing   | Would it work for you? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Rank in order of preference |
|--|--|-----------------------------|
| Home ownership by person with disability (remember to consider the cost of ongoing maintenance)        |  |                             |
| Condo ownership by person with disability (remember to consider ongoing condo fees)                    |  |                             |
| Mobile home ownership by person with disability (remember to consider the cost of ongoing maintenance) |  |                             |
| Home ownership by a parent, sibling, or other family member  |  |                             |
| Condo ownership by a parent, sibling, or other family member   |  |                             |
| Mobile home ownership by a parent, sibling, or other family member                                     |  |                             |
| Second unit (e.g. basement or backyard suite, etc.)  |  |                             |
| Housing cooperative  |  |                             |
| Apartment rental   |  |                             |
| Room and board   |  |                             |
| Living with a roommate (do you have a roommate in mind?How will you find a compatible roommate?)   |  |                             |
| Living with 2-3 roommates (do you have roommates in mind?How will find compatible roommates?)      |  |                             |
| Living alone   |  |                             |
| Subsidized housing / Rent-Geared-to-Income – Application completed?                                    |  |                             |

Locations: list all towns/communities where you would like to live: